RECIPE OF THE MONTH

Instant Pot - Pot Roast

There are so many reasons to make a pressure cooker pot roast, but the #1 reason is TIME! The Instant Pot make things SO much easier and quicker for making a pot roast. You won't be disappointed.

Prep Time 15 minutes

Cook Time 1 hr 20 minutes

Total Time 1 hr 35 minutes

Servings 4 servings

Calories 931 cal

Author Becky Hardin of thecookierookie.com

Ingredients

- 2-3 pounds chuck roast
- 1 teaspoon kosher salt
- ½ teaspoon black pepper
- 1 teaspoon smoky, sweet, or original paprika
- 2 tablespoons canola oil (can substitute for your oil of choice)
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 large sweet yellow onions peeled & quartered
- 3 large carrots washed & cut into 2-inch pieces
- 2 garlic cloves peeled & halved (¼ tsp jarred minced)
- 1 cup low-sodium beef or chicken broth
- 1 cup red wine
- 2 sprigs fresh rosemary (or 1 tsp)
- 2 sprigs fresh thyme (or 1 tsp)

Instructions

Set Instant Pot to "Sauté".

Sprinkle both sides of the pot roast with salt, black pepper and paprika and set aside.

Add oil and butter to the Instant Pot. When the oil is hot and has a shimmer, use tongs to add the roast (resist the urge to flip it for 3-4 minutes). The roast should have a beautiful golden brown sear. Turn the roast over and sear it on the opposite side. Transfer the roast to a plate.

Add the quartered onion and carrots. Cook 3-4 minutes or until vegetables begin to caramelize and brown. Add garlic and sear for 30 seconds.

Slowly add the broth (deglaze) while scraping the bottom of the pot with a wooden spatula.

Place the Instant Pot trivet over the vegetable/broth mixture and set the Instant Pot to "Pressure Cook or Manual" on HIGH and set for 55 minutes.

Place the roast in the Instant Pot on top of the trivet.

Place the rosemary and thyme sprigs on the roast.

If adding root vegetables (to eat as a side) place them on the top of the roast and sprinkle with additional kosher salt and pepper.

Pour the wine over the vegetables and roast.

Place the lid on the pot and turn to LOCK position. Set the vent to the SEALED position.

When the cooking time is done, allow the Instant Pot to natural release. This will take about 10 minutes. When the float valve (red valve) drops, it is safe to open the lid.

Transfer the root vegetables to a platter, and (carefully) remove the roast by the handles of the trivet. Discard the herb sprigs and transfer the roast to the platter with the vegetables. Cover the platter with foil to keep the food warm.

Set the Instant Pot to "Sauté".

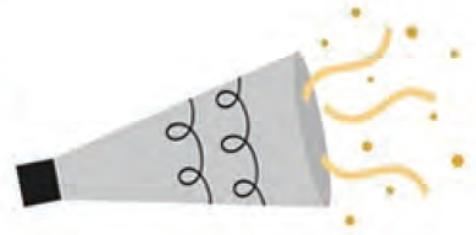

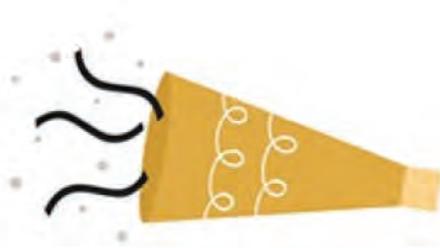

To make the gravy, use an immersion (or hand) blender to purée the liquid and vegetables in the bottom of the pot. (If an immersion blender isn't available, carefully purée the mixture in a regular blender, in batches.) If needed, season the gravy with salt & pepper, and cook the gravy for 3-5 minutes or until it thickens a little.

While the gravy thickens, use a fork to remove excess fat from the roast and the divide the roast into large chunks, for serving. Quarter the carrots.

Serve the root vegetables and roast with the hot gravy. Enjoy!

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

O b i t u a r i e s

John Alvin Elmer was born the son of Alvin J. and Merle (Johnson) Elmer October 20, 1943 in Rock Springs, Wyoming.

He was welcomed home by his parents and sisters Judy and Nola. They had recently moved to Birch Creek, Utah and built a two-room cabin to welcome their new baby home. Dad hadn't gotten the linoleum laid so the night mother and John came home from the hospital, late that night Dad prepared the rough lumber floor by scattering hay over it to pad the linoleum. Dad pulled the burning cook stove up with chains.

He attended school in McKinnon where his mother was the teacher. As he became older he enjoyed playing baseball and played for the Manila Mustangs. He graduated from Green River High School.

He enjoyed playing the guitar and started a dance band called Johnny and the Ridge Runners. They played at the Villa in Manila and all over the west, he was quite the entertainer. Through the years he met and sometimes played with Tex Ross, Tommy Overstreet, Bobby Baer, and Waylon Jennings.

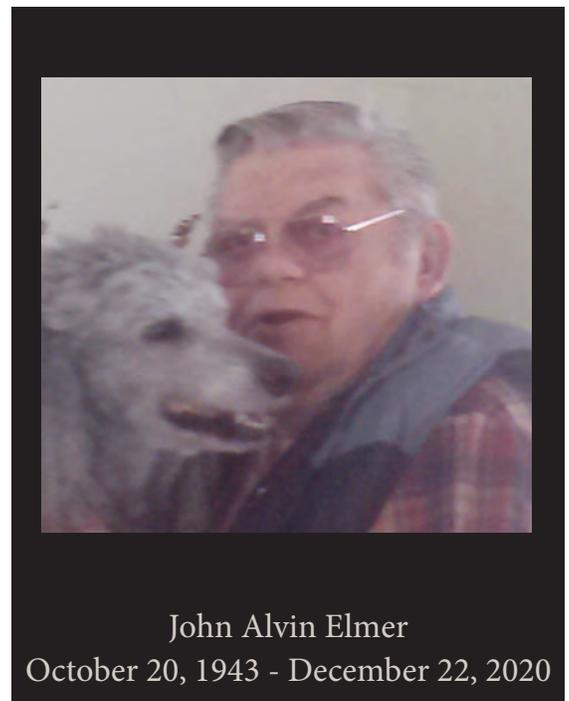

He truly had a gift and he practiced many hours, but it wasn't a very good life for a family man and in later years he regretted not having more time with his family.

John is survived by his children Stacey (Troy) Gatherum; Nick (Cindi) Elmer; Tina (Jim) Johnson; Charles (Tomilynn) Elmer; Snow Palmisano; and William (Jamie) Elmer; Sister Nola (Rodney) Bluemel of Lyman; 20 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

A memorial services will be held Saturday, January 9, 2021 at 2 pm at Crandall Funeral Home
800 Uinta St., Evanston.

Condolences may be expressed at www.crandallfevanston.com
