WELL, summer is waning! This coming weekend is our LAST HURRAH for the formal summer season. We hope you've all had a wonderfully enjoyable season filled with family, fish, food and fun. We want to report that the airport lighting and resurfacing project is essentially completed. Now commences the AWOS project that should be completed by late fall that will put our Manila airport/landing strip "on the map!" This will be a great benefit in 911/EMT circumstances. These upgrades are through a grant from the Utah State DOT/aeronautics department with the county making a 10% contribution. In addition to these physical land improvements, Deputy

Travis Dupaix is preparing to start an EMT course on September 24. The class will be held in Green River on Tues & Thurs evenings from 6-10pm. If you are interested in obtaining EMT certification please call 435-784-3255 for Travis Dupaix and he will give you the details. Our Tower Rock Run was a huge success! 120 runners! The front of this newsletter will give you the winners. Come join in next year— you can just WALK the course, if you prefer, and get your t-shirt! It's held in the most beautiful area, Come join us! This newsletter will give you all the upcoming events that will round out our summer season. We hope to see you all at one or several of them. We love county visitors to participate in these events, but YOU are our important VIP's. The light parade and fireworks at Lucerne Marina is always a BLAST and the PRCA Rodeo is our huge FINAL summer event, and getting better each year. SEE YOU THERE! Finally, as we welcome fall, please be aware of school children back in session. Also, hunting season has started with the Archery Hunt on right now, converting to full season before long. Be safe and watchful for all hunters/drivers and game. The Kokanee are spawning now. Looking over the bridge at Sheep Creek road bend you can see them in their full RED glory. Take the kids & grandkids!

DUANE WIDDISON DRAPER 8/27/1946 ~ 08/20/2019

Manila, UT — Duane Widdison Draper, 72, died Tuesday, August 20, 2019, while en route home from Albania, where he and his wife, Teresa, had been support missionaries for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Duane had a taste for adventure. In younger days, he enjoyed rock climbing, hiking, and exploring the wilderness. Early in their married life Duane and Teresa lived in the Virgin Islands, where he learned to sail. Duane enjoyed whittling, cooking, camping, and gazing up at the stars through a telescope he built himself. He loved listening to his children and grandchildren sing or play musical instruments. He enjoyed attending operas and other theatrical productions with his wife.

Duane had a playful nature. His grandchildren knew him as “Grandpa Roar” because his customary greeting was a loud growl. The mothers of those grandchildren would often find he had drawn mustaches on their children’s upper lips with indelible ink. He enjoyed funny stories and general goofiness. He had a ready smile and was quick to lift your spirits.

Duane was a kind and compassionate man. He loved people and lived a life of service. He was active in the National Guard for many years. He loved acting the role of Santa Claus for family and community events. Duane was an Eagle Scout and an active leader in the Boy Scouts of America for which he earned the Silver Beaver award. Duane was a faithful church member. In addition to his recent mission to Albania, he spent two years as a full-time missionary in the Netherlands while a youth. He also held a variety of responsibilities in his local congregations, most recently as bishop for the Manila Utah Ward.

Though loved by all, Duane eschewed notoriety and prominence. He wanted to avoid the lime-light, preferring a life of quiet anonymity. His heroes were the unnamed stalwarts of history who served their families and their communities in quiet, unsung ways, seeking no fame or recognition. Yet, he is counted a friend, mentor, and confidant, for innumerable people whose lives he influenced for good. He is already missed immensely.

Duane was born in Ogden, Utah, the first of 10 children. He grew up in Farmington, Utah, where he met his wife, Teresa, after returning from his missionary service in Holland. Duane and Teresa married in December, 1969, in the Salt Lake (Utah) Temple.

Throughout his career as a physician assistant, Duane moved his family numerous times, often to far-flung rural communities, including Chignik Bay, a tiny Alaskan village only accessible by boat or plane. The family lived in multiple cities in Arizona, Utah, Minnesota, Idaho and Alaska. Eventually, Duane and Teresa settled in Manila, Utah, where Duane provided medical care in the local clinic for 10 years before retiring in 2018.

Duane leaves behind his wife of nearly 50 years, Teresa Ann (Johnson) Draper; three daughters and three sons: Preston (Carrie) Draper, Tierza (Jay) Askren, Christijan (Valorie) Draper, Jacob (Holly) Draper, Maradon (Arthur) Nettleship, and Leslee (Nathan) Wood; 25 grandchildren; eight siblings; and many other family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Rulon and Donna (Widdison) Draper, and a brother, David Draper.

Funeral Services were conducted on Tuesday, August 27, 2019; at 12:00 PM / Noon in the Manila LDS Chapel. Burial will be in the Manila City Cemetery.

DEBORAH BROWN WEAVER 9/1/1960 ~ 8/17/2019

Deborah Brown Weaver, 58, passed away peacefully on August 17, 2019, surrounded by her children and devoted husband of 41 years. Debbie's three children and ten grandchildren were blessed with the world's best mom and grandma.

Debbie was born on Sept. 1, 1960 to Maurell Dee and Betty Jean Marz Brown. She resided in Morgan, Utah until she and her husband retired to Manila, Utah in 2016. Debbie graduated from Morgan High School in 1978. High school is where she met and fell in love with her best friend John Weaver who affectionately referred to her as his "Dove." They married on September 2, 1978 and became eternal companions ten years later.

Debbie was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and served in many callings. Callings in the Young Women's were always her favorite. Sister "Cutie Pie" was adored in the Manila, Utah Ward because of the big bag of toys and treats she would share with her little friends.

Debbie had a knack for making and keeping lifelong friends. She had many people that loved her. She was known for her infectious laugh and bubbly personality. Debbie always prided herself in being honest and standing up for what is right. She was a very creative person and had many talents. She taught piano, loved to quilt, chalk paint, and collect antiques. Debbie always loved and looked forward to road trips with John and girls' weekends.

She is preceded in death by her father, her mother, and her beloved brother Bill. She is survived by her loving husband John, and three children, Brianne Carter, Heidi (Joseph) Metsch, Kyle (Bonnee) Weaver, and ten grandchildren that were her whole world.

Our family would like to express our gratitude to the Daggett County Sheriff's Office and EMS Department, the crew of Classic Helicopter, and the amazing staff at the University of Utah Medical Center. In lieu of flowers, Debbie would want you to take your loved ones on a date.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, August 24, 2019 at 1 p.m. at the Field Street Chapel (240 South 300 West Morgan, UT). Interment will be at the South Morgan Cemetery

ZUCCHINI CHOCOLATE CHIP MUFFINS

YEILD: 12 MUFFINS

PREP: 10 MINUTES

COOK: 20 MIN

These zucchini-chocolate chip muffins are super quick, insanely moist, and a great way to use up the late summer zucchini bounty!

- 3 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1 medium zucchini shredded (about 3 cups) excess liquid squeezed out)
- 10 tablespoons unsalted butter (melted)
- 1 cup chocolate chips (dark or semisweet)
- Pinch of Salt

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease a 12-cup muffin tin (or line with paper liners).

In a medium bowl, whisk together the flour, baking soda, cinnamon and salt.

In a large bowl, whisk together the sugar, eggs and vanilla extract. Using a rubber spatula, stir in the grated zucchini and the melted butter.

Add the flour mixture to the zucchini mixture and gently stir to combine. Stir in the chocolate chips until evenly distributed.

Divide the batter evenly between the muffin cups (they should be almost completely filled up). Bake until golden brown and a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean, 20 to 25 minutes. Allow the muffins to cool in the pan for 5 minutes, then remove to a wire cooling rack and cool for an additional 30 minutes before serving. The muffins should be stored in an airtight container at room temperature for up to 4 days. You can also wrap these individually in plastic wrap, place in a freezer bag and freeze for up to 2 months

SEPTEMBER SILLINESS

LABOR DAY

Date when celebrated: Always the first Monday in September

Dedicated in honor of the worker, it is also appropriately called the "workingman's holiday". The holiday is dedicated to you in respect and appreciation for the work you do in or outside of the home, union or non-union, big company, small companies, or government. As long as you work somewhere at something, this holiday is for you!

The first Labor Day was held celebrated in New York City on September 5, 1882 and was started by the Central Labor Union in New York City. In 1884, it was moved to the first Monday in September where it is celebrated today. Labor Day quickly became popular and one state after another voted it as a holiday. On June 28, 1894, the U.S. congress voted it a national holiday. Labor Day is also viewed as the official end of summer. While the Fall Equinox is still a couple of weeks away, kids go back to school and summer vacations are over.

Labor Day tradition: This day is celebrated with a day off and union sponsored parades. Many people celebrate this weekend with one last picnic. It is also the date that many people close up the pool, and put away the boats.

Was it McGuire or Maguire? Either Peter McGuire or Matthew Maguire is the Creator of Labor Day. Peter J. McGuire, was an active labor organizer. He was also general secretary of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and a co-founder of the American Federation of Labor. He was believed to be the first to suggest a day be dedicated to American workers and their accomplishments. Matthew Maguire however, was secretary of the Central Labor Union in New York in 1882 and many believed that he proposed the holiday in 1882.

According to ancient lore, instilled wisdom, loyalty and nobility.

JustServe.org is a free website where the volunteer needs of organizations may be posted and volunteers may search for places to serve in the community, providing opportunities to help those in need and enhance the quality of life in their communities. It does not discriminate based on race, religion, gender, ethnicity, or sexual orientation in posting projects or in encouraging volunteers to serve.

JustServe.org is provided by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and has been made this available to everyone interested in using it to help increase community visibility and volunteer outreach for their charitable organizations. There are no strings attached and you can use it as little or as much as you wish, and any time you want.
